

Dipl.-Ing. Malik Zeniti, Manager, Cluster for Logistics, Luxembourg

Malik started his career in process & product development in the aircraft industry, then joined DuPont to work 25 years in different business, marketing, sales and technical assignments serving industries like construction, filtration, medical, industrial/active packaging, apparel, lighting and protection. His strengths are product and market development as he likes to promote new applications to new markets. He joined the Cluster for logistics (C4L) in 2015 to manage, coordinate and drive activities and reinforce synergies. Mission is to promote the development of Logistics, identify collaborative R&D and innovation opportunities between actors with the vision to raise the competitiveness of the sector in Luxembourg making it more attractive and renowned as an international hub. He is board member and treasurer of the Cool chain association and IATA Member of Time-temperature task force defining standards. Malik holds a degree of Chemical Engineering of University of Karlsruhe (D) is married and has three kids.

Contact:

Malik ZENITI

Cluster Manager

Tel.: +352 42 39 39 849

malik.zeniti@clusterforlogistics.lu

www.clusterforlogistics.lu

